Reverse Mortgage Funding Hires Michele Zachensky

Bloomfield, N.J., August 15, 2013—Reverse Mortgage Funding LLC (RMF) added another industry veteran to its management team this week, landing Michele Zachensky as its fulfillment leader. Zachensky comes to RMF from MetLife, where she was previously vice president of operations for the company's reverse mortgage division.

While at MetLife, Zachensky's responsibilities included oversight of origination operations, including processing, closing, and insuring for all reverse mortgage channels. She also had responsibility for ensuring post-closing coordination, as well as coordinating compliance for Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and regulatory exams. In 2010, Zachensky was a member of the MetLife team that was honored as one of American Banker's Top Banking Teams. During her tenure, she managed one of the industry's largest reverse mortgage operations.

Prior to working for MetLife, Zachensky was the senior vice president of operations at EverBank Reverse Mortgage, which was acquired by MetLife in May 2008.

"This is such an exciting opportunity for me," said Zachensky. "I'm thrilled to join this team and to work together to accomplish new things."

Zachensky has previously served on the Board of Directors for the National Reverse Mortgage Lenders Association (NRMLA) and has also served on the NRMLA Professional Development, HUD Issues, Risk and Compliance, and Ethics Committees.

Reverse Mortgage Funding LLC is a member of the National Reverse Mortgage Lenders Association.
